*To qualify for resident's fees, the deceased must have had a home address in Helsby at the time of their death. Non-residents are classed as those whose home address, at the time of their death, was not in Helsby but who have proof of residency in Helsby of 10 years or more, or have a close relative already interred or ashes buried in Helsby Public Cemetery. At the discretion of Helsby Parish Council, other non-residents may be interred or have ashes buried in the cemetery subject to payment of the appropriate fee.

[∞]Any subsequent changes to a memorial stone will incur an administration fee of £70.

There is a £50 search charge in response to any queries regarding cemetery records. There is a £70 charge for transfer of grant of exclusive rights of burial, if relevant.

All the above fees will be waived for the interment of under 18's.
